Interactive Virtual Leadership Workshop Tailored to the Needs of Your Organization

COVID-19 has been described as a global Life-Quake event. These turning point experiences in our professional and personal lives shape us in unexpected ways. In this interactive webinar, we will what nurse leaders need to consider in 2022 as we emerge from the pandemic. Actionable strategies to reboot your leadership will be presented along with how to help both yourself and your team grow and thrive.

Our topic areas include:

- The personal and professional impact of a life-quake event.
- Key leadership actions to promote successful life-quake transitions.
- Trauma-Informed Leadership
- Rebuilding team culture and engagement after a life-quake.
- Re-establishing trust and psychological safety.
- Championing the value of mental health support.
- Developing a roadmap for your leadership in 2022.
